South Bay Vocational Center

who gives opportunities to individuals with disabilities

South Bay Vocational Center started a community outreach program that provides food to the local community.

The Community Outreach Program started in 2013 with only 30 individuals receiving food. Now, we distribute food to over 200 individuals in the Carson area.

South Bay Vocational Center solicits: Food Banks, Feed the Children, and the local Supermarkets. We are thankful to be the recipients of the food from these places.

The staff members at South Bay Vocational Center distribute the food every Wednesday from 12:30 to 3:00 p.m. at 20706 Main Street, Carson, CA 90745.
